Laughter to fill Edson Auditorium when comedian Robert Post takes the stage

Summary: National Public Radio touts the Post Comedy Theatre show as “uproariously funny.”

(November 5, 2009)-The hilarious Post Comedy Theatre is the third event in the University of Minnesota, Morris 2009 Performing Arts Series. Comedian Robert Post will bring humor, juggling, and ventriloquism to the Student Center’s Edson Auditorium stage on Saturday, November 21, 2009, at 7:30 p.m. National Public Radio touts the show as “uproariously funny” and states Post’s antics will “give you a boost of happiness.”

In addition to performing, Post’s weekend agenda also includes hosting a workshop for Morris Area High School students and University students in which they will learn the art of physical acting.

UMM student Sam Krump-Johnson ’10, Maple Grove, co-chair of the student organization Unusual Suspects Improv Troupe, is looking forward to the performance and the workshop. He says, “[Post] takes funny to a whole new level. His use of pantomime and diverse characters make for a truly sidesplitting experience!”

For ticket information, contact the Office of Student Activities by e-mail at ummstact@morris.umn.edu or call 320-589-6080.

Primary funding for the PAS is provided by University of Minnesota, Morris students. The series is made possible in part by a grant from the Minnesota State Arts Board, through an appropriation by the Minnesota State Legislature and a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship.
